TMM, INC
NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS
AS OF MARCH 31, 2012

1. BASIS OF PRESENTATION

These Financial Statements have been compiled using historical data from reports prepared by the previous management of the Company along with the recent activity of the Company and the Shareholder Group who initiated the change in the Company's management. These financial statements are preliminary and are based on the best information available at this time. As the discovery and review of certain historical documents continues (the current management was voted into office on October 17, 2011) any revisions will be updated in the next fiscal quarter (See Note 5). These statements have not been audited or reviewed and accordingly, no opinion or any other form of assurance is expressed on them.

2. COMPOSITION OF CERTAIN ASSET ACCOUNTS

VDK Codec Costs Capitalized: Represents historical costs previously capitalized and fully amortized for the development of the VDK Codec code.

Code Review and Enhancements: Represent funds spent currently to review, update and enhance the company's software.

Graphic Design Costs: Represents funds spent currently for certain design updates and enhancements

Legal and Related Costs: Represents fees and costs paid for the shareholder action along with professional and consulting fees incurred in the discovery and updating of certain corporate governance documents and proprietary information.

The above costs are deemed to have certain future value and as such have been presented as assets of the Company. These assets will be amortized at a future date and will be charged to reflect a proper matching against future revenue.

TMM, INC
NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS
AS OF MARCH 31, 2012

3. AMOUNTS DUE TO ADVANCED SALES, INC

Represents funds paid on behalf of the Company by Advanced Sales, Inc., a shareholder. The amounts paid were for the costs incurred with the shareholder action to remove the previous board members and for additional software review and code development costs.

4. AMOUNTS DUE TO INTERNATIONAL ROYALTIES, CORP

The amounts due to International Royalties, Corp. are for funds advanced to the Company in 2009 ($18,778) and for fees due for managerial and director services rendered from 2007 to the present ($156,775). The amounts due for services are anticipated to be satisfied by the issuance of capital stock in the Company. Also see Note 7.

5. LITIGATION

The Company is currently in litigation to recover certain tax, financial, corporate governance and proprietary documents from the Company's previous management and certain related parties that could have a material effect on this Financial Statement and the financial position of the Company.

6. PRIVATE SUBSCRIPTION OFFERING

The Company successfully completed a Subscription Offering which was initiated in late October, 2011 for private investors and which has raised $564,500 US for the Company. The $0.02 per Unit offering consisted of one share of TMMI common stock and one warrant to purchase one additional share of TMMI common stock at $.05 per share within three (3) years.

The Company is using the Subscription funds to cover its expenses associated with gathering and organizing the Company's corporate governance documents and intellectual property records. In addition, such Subscription proceeds will enable the Company to continue developing its TRUDEF™ Technology which is the successor of the Company's VDK Codec SoftVideo™ fractal compression technology which was first under development in the 1990's.
